

I fear that political infringements by media conglomerates will undermine our Constitutional freedoms, and eventually destroy freedom of the press. Such partisanship is detrimental to the future of our children, and could lead to martial law being instituted.